Comprehension:

Read the given poem and answer the questions based on it:

All I know is a door into the dark.

Outside, old axles and iron hoops rusting;

Inside, the hammered anvil's short-pitched ring,

The unpredictable fantail of sparks

Or hiss when a new shoe toughens in water.

The anvil must be somewhere in the centre,

Horned as a unicorn, at one end and square,

Set there immovable: an altar

Where he expends himself in shape and music.

Sometimes, leather-aproned, hairs in his nose,

He leans out on the jamb, recalls a clatter

Of hoofs where traffic is flashing in rows;

Then grunts and goes in, with a slam and flick

To beat real iron out, to work the bellows.

SubQuestion No : 3

Q.3 Select the correct summary for the passage:

Comprehension:

Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

"In the classic novel 'To Kill a Mockingbird' by Harper Lee, the town of Maycomb serves as a microcosm of the broader societal issues prevailing in the American South during the 1930s. Through the eyes of young Scout Finch, we witness the stark realities of racism, injustice, and the moral complexities that shape our world. Atticus Finch, Scout's father, emerges as a beacon of moral integrity in a town plagued by prejudice. His unwavering commitment to defending Tom Robinson, an African American man falsely accused of a crime, challenges the status quo and raises questions about the nature of humanity and justice. As students explore this literary masterpiece, they are not only exposed to the art of storytelling but also prompted to reflect upon the enduring themes of empathy, discrimination, and the power of one's conscience."
